Guided tour: 'CRANACH. Master – Brand – Modernity' at Museum Kunstpalast in Düsseldorf on 22 April 2017, 2.30 pm

Dear alumni, dear friends,

Lucas Cranach the Elder ranks among the most eminent painters of the German Renaissance. He was a close friend of Martin Luther and had a significant influence on artists across the centuries. The exhibition "CRANACH. Master – Brand – Modernity" explores Cranach the Elder's productivity and activity, demonstrating his successful strategies and the influence of this exceptional artist on modern and contemporary art. The exhibition brings together more than 200 works of art from international museums like the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York or the National Gallery in London to contrast Cranach's work with other Renaissance artists like Dürer, Holbein or de' Barbari as well to show his influence on artists like Picasso, Giacometti and Warhol.

We cordially invite you to a guided tour exploring 'CRANACH. Master – Brand – Modernity' at Museum Kunstpalast in Düsseldorf on 22 April 2017 at 2.30 pm.

We will meet at the Steiner-Lenzlinger-Foyer of Museum Kunstpalast, Ehrenhof 4-5, 40479 Düsseldorf at 2.15 pm (15 min ahead of the tour).

Please register by Thursday, 20 April 2017 by email to manuel.geggus@lsealumni.de.

The guided tour (in English) is free of charge for members of the German Friends of LSE. The participation fee for non-members is €10, which we ask you to transfer to our bank account DE57300700240612018200, reference: Museum Kunstpalast Düsseldorf April 2017.
